CHAPTER II.

Territorial Jurisdiction of the State.

33. The sovereignty and jurisdiction of this State extends to all places within its boundaries as established by the Constitution; but the extent of such jurisdiction over places that have been or may be ceded to, purchased or condemned by the United States is qualified by the terms of such cession or the laws under which such purchase or condemnation has been or may be made.

34. The Legislature consents to the purchase or condemnation by the United States of any tract of land within this State for the purpose of erecting forts, magazines, arsenals, dock-yards and other needful buildings, upon the express condition that all civil process issued from the Courts of this State, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of this State, against any person charged with crime, may be served and executed thereon in the same mode and manner and by the same officers as if the purchase or condemnation had not been made.
